Domestic Workers News Update from Indonesia

In order to celebrate the world women's day (8 March), Equality Commission KSBSI (K2N KSBSI) hold a Bazaar by distributing basic commodities such as sugar, cooking oil, noodles, etc. to 500 domestic workers and housewives who live around the KSBSI office in the area of Cipinang Muara, as well as other members of the KSBSI affiliated Federations.

Chief of Community received I package of basic need goods from reps ILO Jakarta

Celebration of the world women's day this time raised the issue of domestic workers because almost all of domestic workers in Indonesia are women. By taking a theme of "Decent work for Domestic Workers", K2N KSBSI trying to actively support the campaign on decent work for domestic workers. In addition to distribution of basic commodities packages, K2N KSBSI also aired a movie on gender equality and domestic violence.

This bazaar has several goals at once, namely;

- 1. As a form of KSBSI social responsibility to the community living around the KSBSI office, considering the price of basic commodities that continues to rise recently
- 2. Attract domestic workers to come out of the house and listen to the socialization of the rights of domestic workers for decent work
- 3. Provide education to the housewife through watching the movie on domestic violence and gender equali-
- 4. Mobilize sympathy from the public to make pressure to the House of Representatives to start discussing the Draft Law on Domestic Workers

Bazaar event that was attended by ILO Jakarta and several supporting organizations, was the first time organized by KSBSI for the surcommunity rounding after 5 years ago KSBSI occupy its own office in this location.

According to Yatini. Chairperson K2N

KSBSI, KSBSI Equality Commission now has management structure in 15 provinces in Indonesia to ensure gender equality, not only within the organization of KSBSI but also in the industrial relations and the wider community. This Bazaar event has mobilized 500 supports from the community, especially women and members of KSBSI, to urge the House of Representatives to immediately discuss the draft law on Domestic Workers in Indonesia.

Emma, Bazaar Committee K2N KSBSI, said that after this Bazaar there are many domestic workers and housewife around the office are interested on the KSBSI campaign on Domestic Workers.

Solidarity Letter from ITUC AP to President SBY on Domestic Workers

In commemorating Domestic Workers Day in Indonesia on 15 February 2012, the ITUC Asia-Pacific sent a solidarity letter to the President of the Republic of Indonesia, Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono, urged the Government of Indonesia to ratify the ILO Convention no. 189 and Recommendation 201 on Decent work for domestic workers. ITUC AP also urged the House of Representatives to immediately discuss the draft law on Domestic Workers.

Indonesia became one of the 12 target countries in the ITUC "12-12 (twelve-twelve)" campaign for the ratification of the ILO Convention on Domestic Workers in year 2012.
