

A900966

Building a workers' alliance against forced labour and trafficking

Activity objective

Objective

- This venue aims at strengthening the capacities of trade unionists on forced labour.
- It is designed to enable trade union policy officers to prepare a draft trade union policy, strategy and action plan against forced labour and trafficking for consideration by the political organs of their national centres.

- Participants should have a clear view on the different forms of forced labour and trafficking and regional and sectoral characteristics, its causes and its impact on the labour market.
- They should have a clear view of the role of trade unions in the fight against forced labour and the possible means of action at national or local level as well as in collaboration with foreign partner organizations at regional or international level.