Representations and consulates of RA

You have received an offer to work abroad?

Stop for a moment before accepting any job offer

Check whether it will enable you to

- ✓ earn enough money,
- ✓ take care of your families finance expenses

When you decide to accept the suggestion for working abroad, here is some basic advice:

make sure there's a formal agreement in detail about:

- ❖ the nature of your work
- ❖ work and payment conditions
- ❖ workplace
- ❖ contract period
- ❖ travel expenses (should be covered by your employer)
- ❖ living and other expenses
- ❖ check the possibility to obtain legal status for living abroad
- ❖ take the copies of all documents (passport, labour contract, visa, photos) leave a copy of it with your family
- ❖ leave contacts of your future employer with your family
- ❖ try to call back home and give them your address as soon as you arrive in your country of destination

Keep your passport after presenting it to state bodies

Nobody has right to take your passport at any time

Remember

If the the job and payment conditions are not the same as you were promised:

- ❖ You can turn to trade unions in the country of destination or contact the trade union information telephone in Armenia, local authorities, representatives of Republic of Armenia, to help you to find a way out.
- ❖ You may be a victim of human trafficking and will not be punished or deported if you are.
